

HER GENTLE PRAYER

KATLYN GRACE

Her Gentle Prayer

Copyright © 2020 by Katlyn Grace

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any other form or in any means – by electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise – without prior written permission.

HER GENTLE PRAYER

She prayed and she prayed
each night and each day,

“Lord, send me someone with bold enough faith;
one who might fall on the seventh but get back up on the eighth.

Make him strong and courageous with a love that is ageless.

Shield him, oh Lord, from all harm and all danger.
Guard his heart with Your Word that isn't a stranger.

Let him sing of Your grace and have patience for the race.

I praise You, dear Lord, because I know You have heard me.
Now take me and shape me; mold me and break me.

Draw us closer to You as we prepare for each other.

And let us glorify You in all that we do.
This I pray, dear Lord, Your will that You do.”

Now this prayer she prayed
each night and each day

’til God said, “Okay, this is the day
and here I say:

He is worth the wait.
My darling, he is not late.

He will love every inch of you,
because he loves Me too.”